MURDER VICTIMS

Mary Short

Jennifer Short

Michael Short

THE DETAILS SURROUNDING THE CRIME

On August 15, 2002, at approximately 9:00 a.m., the bodies of Michael and Mary Short were discovered in their Bassett, Henry County, Virginia, home. Michael was found on the couch inside the attached garage of the home with an apparent gun shot wound to his head. His wife Mary was found lying in her bed and had suffered the same fate as her husband. The Short's 9-year-old daughter, Jennifer, was not located in the home and a search ensued for the missing child. Jennifer's remains were found on September 25, 2002, along a stream bed off of Grogan Road, Stoneville, Rockingham County, North Carolina. It was determined that Jennifer's death was caused by a gunshot wound to the head.

Law enforcement authorities continue to seek the public's help in locating the suspect(s) involved in the murders of Michael, Mary and their young daughter Jennifer Short.
